Ms. Brittani Blanchard
Student Association for Forensic Psychology
George Washington University

Dear Ms. Blanchard,

I would like to formally thank you, and all the fine students from the Student Association for Forensic Psychology at George Washington University, for your tireless and intrepid efforts volunteering with The Profiling Project™.

As you know, I established and funded the Project as an autonomous, independent, and nonpartisan effort to help find who killed Seth Rich.

While the work has so far not led to identifying a killer or killers, the 80-page report revealed new information about the high-profile crime and exposed questionable police conclusions and practices. I hope and trust the findings, and the additional steps the Project continues to take, will bring the community many steps closer to finding the truth of what happened Seth.

As The Profiling Project™ segues into the next phase, I want you to know how much the GWU students' contributions mean to the Project, and to me personally. I hope you that you will convey my heartfelt gratitude to each of them.

With best regards,
